

The 2nd Conference of the Theatre of the Oppressed will be held in Ljubljana between the 11th and the 12th of November 2021. It is an international conference with a clear purpose: identifying and promoting Theatre of the Oppressed as a tool for building community resilience, as well as finding effective ways to implement it towards this goal – in Slovenia as well as internationally. To achieve this we will be hosting Slovenian and international authors, who will present their experiences, methods, success stories, and hurdles, in three fields which represent different areas where Theatre of the Oppressed can be implemented to build community resilience:

- Building connections through pedagogic work and education
- Building international connections between Theatre of the Oppressed practitioners and the visibility of this theatre method through international and Slovenian Theatre of the Oppressed festivals.
- Building community among audiences and activating audiences with the help of Theatre of the Oppressed as an approach to performances

Along with this theoretical exchange of experiences and knowledge, there will also be practical TO workshops with mentors from Bolivia (Ana Salazar Torrez) and Austria (Joschka Köck and Linda Raule).

REGISTRATION >> Please inform us of your attendance by filling out this form. <<

The event is aimed at anyone who is interested in creating theatre performances, educate in, and organize workshops and trainings according to Theatre of the Oppressed methodology, or works with youths and other marginalized groups. Employees in schools, kindergartens, and other educational facilities are also welcome.

Co-organiser: Slovenian Theatre Institute
The conference is cofunded by JSKD and MOL.

You will need a valid RVT (recovered, vaccinated, tested) certificate to enter the event. Please come to the event only if healthy, wear a mask and follow the general hygienic recommendations regarding covid-19.*
